

In what country do you live?

A world map with a light wood-grain background. The word "sweden" is written in large, bold, purple lowercase letters across the center of the map. Other country names are written in various colors and orientations: "finland" and "norway" in light blue above Sweden; "australia" in light blue vertically on the left; "germany" in white vertically on the left; "estonia" in teal, "spain" in purple, "india" in blue, and "netherlands" in purple vertically below Sweden; and "latvia" in blue to the right of Sweden. Numerous small blue dots are scattered across the map, representing individual data points.
